HEADQUARTERS
 DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
 WASHINGTON, DC, 1 June 1999

TRANSFER OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY MARKSMANSHIP UNIT

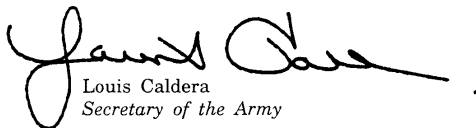

1. Effective 1 June 1999, the United States Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU, UIC W1DQAA reestablished) is attached for all operational and administrative matters, but not personnel and fiscal matters, to the U.S. Army Recruiting Command (USAREC, W06QAA), a subordinate command of Headquarters, United States Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC). The USAMU is further attached to the United States Army Infantry Center and Fort Benning for the administration of military justice, to include court-martial convening authority and non-judicial punishment, and administrative separation actions.

2. Effective 1 October 1999, the USAMU is transferred from the United States Army Community and Family Support Center (CFSC, W4RHAA), a Field Operating Agency of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management (ACSIM), to USAREC. The USAMU will continue to be located at Fort Benning, Georgia, but will receive administrative and logistical support from Headquarters, USAREC. Personnel records for USAMU will continue to be maintained by the Personnel Service Center at Fort Benning. Non-reimbursable base operations support will continue to be provided by the United States Army Infantry Center and Fort Benning, as stipulated in inter-service support agreements and AR 5-9. Attachment to the United States Army Infantry Center and Fort Benning for the administration of military justice, to include court-martial convening authority and non-judicial punishment, and administrative separation actions, remains in effect upon the transfer of the USAMU to USAREC.

3. The mission of the USAMU is to—

- a. Select, equip, and train soldiers to compete and win in inter-service, national, international, and Olympic marksmanship competitions.
- b. Promote the United States Army and enhance Army recruiting efforts by fostering public confidence in Army marksmanship through an active public information and public relations program.
- c. Enhance Army combat readiness by providing lessons learned from competitive shooting to the various small arms proponents.
